Minority Affairs and Inclusion

"DOING WHAT MATTERS TODAY FOR CHANGE TOMORROW"

What is the Office of Minority Affairs and Inclusion?

The Office of Minority Affairs is an extended arm of Lucas County Children Services that identifies barriers that families face and sees ways to remove them. A primary function of the office is to raise awareness of issues that get in the way and often impact positive outcomes for families. We provide services designed to empower people from a multicultural perspective with emphasis placed on INCLUSION and not exclusion. This office serves as a gateway to bridge gaps in services.
